 All the must-sees along the way
 and ready-made holidays

Stretching over 815 km, for the most part alongside the Rhône River, the ViaRhôna cycle route boasts diverse and exceptional landscapes. Panoramic views of the Alps, riverside vineyards, hilltop villages, and the lavender fields and olive trees of Provence: the route is a pedaller's paradise through the very essence of France.

More than just a cycling itinerary, ViaRhôna highlights a myriad of regional treasures along the way, to explore and enjoy at your own pace.

Gastronomy, wine, culture, heritage, and nature will be the guiding companions for curious travellers.

Several specialised travel agencies can help organise your trip. They can choose and book your accommodation, hire bikes, organise luggage transfer, and provide itineraries and assistance. All that's left is the pedalling! Here is a selection of travel agencies that offer loop and touring holidays on ViaRhôna:

AT THE CROSSROADS OF VIARHONA AND THE DOLCE VIA

4 days of cycling in Drôme and Ardèche
 From Valence to Montélimar via Le Cheylard and Le Pouzin
 158 km | 4 days

Orchards, mills, and artistic architectural structures bear witness to the valley's rich agricultural and industrial past. You'll then return to ViaRhôna and follow the Rhône River to Montélimar, where you can stroll through its Provençal little streets.

The itinerary includes two types of lanes:

Secure greenways
 restricted to cyclists and other non-motorized users,

Shared roads
 secondary roads shared with motorists, mostly with little traffic.

ViaRhôna is made up of 60% greenways and 40% shared roads. 65% of the itinerary runs directly along the river.

Mostly flat: except for the first 120 km from Saint-Gingolph to Seyssel, the route is an easy ride along the river.

BIKE AND BOAT ON LAKE BOURGET

3 days of cycling exploring the lake and vineyards
 From Seyssel to Belley via Chanaz and Aix-les-Bains
 53 km | 3 days

After leaving Seyssel, at the border of Ain and Haute-Savoie, you'll continue your ride through nature towards Chanaz, the Little Venice of Savoie. Be sure to stop and explore this charming village, the port of departure for a cruise on Lake Bourget, the largest natural lake in France. Back in Chanaz, you'll head toward Belley through the Tunnel du Chat. Wine tastings are available, but please drink in moderation. The stage ends in Belley, the historic capital of Bugey, with monuments testifying to a rich history.

THE CAMARGUE BY BIKE

Loop from Sète to Aigues-Mortes
 Have you always dreamt of immersing yourself in the nature of Camargue? This original cycling itinerary starts along the coast of the Mediterranean before joining up with ViaRhôna in Port-Saint-Louis, where the Rhône River flows into the sea.

Discover the wild nature of Camargue with a backdrop of farmhouses, marshes, and ponds as you ride through ranches, herds of free-roaming horses, and exceptional bird reserves. Immerse yourself in the fauna and flora between two typical Camargue towns during a week of cycling.
